You are invited to a public forum, sponsored by TIKKUN Magazine on JFK...

The movie, the assassination, and the ferocious campaign in the New York Times and elsewhere to discredit the movie.

Speakers include:

PETER DALE SCOTT, professor at UC Berkeley, whose research on the assassination was cited by Oliver Stone, and whose theory about the motive for a conspiracy has been central to the current debate.

TODD GITLIN, author of The Sixties and professor of sociology at UC Berkeley, on the meaning of the assassination for the dynamics of the 1960s.

MICHAEL LERNER, former national leader of the anti-war movement of the 1960s, now editor of TIKKUN, on the political and cultural meaning of the attempts to discredit the movie.

PETER GABEL, president of New College of California, on psychological dimensions of the JFK controversy.

Tomorrow! Wednesday, January 22, at 7:30 p.m.
